RECTOR'S RAMBLINGS

Many people have written about the two seas in Israel and Jordan. Most of the following thoughts below are borrowed, but they continue to speak to me, and I hope, to you.

There are two seas. Both are in the same part of the world; both are fed by the Jordan River. The more northern of the two seas is called the Sea of Galilee. It has blue-green water. Trees and plants line its banks. It has fish and attracts birds. There are communities and resorts along it.

The more southern of the two seas is called the Dead Sea. It has no fish. Birds stay away. While it is fun to float in the very salty water, the water stings any cuts on your skin and burns your eyes. No homes dot its shore.

The Sea of Galilee receives water and water also flows out from it. The Dead Sea receives water, but none flows out; the water just sits and, eventually, evaporates.

Which sea best represents you and your life? Which sea do you wish to be like?

God is not finished with any of us. None of us is a finished product. May we be aware of the gifts that we have been given. May we find ways to share them meaningfully with others.

See you in church.

Albert A. Jennings

FROM THE VESTRY (Last meeting on October 3)

1. We approved the Audit Report.
2. We reflected on the meaning of the previous Sunday's "Collect of the Day".
3. We heard of the possibility of utilizing Memorial Funds to continue improving the Youth meeting room.
4. We changed the date to November 3 for the Vestry Planning Day: What might/will things at St. Timothy's look like in five years?

CHURCH HAPPENINGS

Ronald McDonald House

See the new letter from The House about 6 yr-old Collins Pading and her grand mal seizures and the 2 year search for answers. The separated parents, one at the house, one at home, were reunited; brain lesion surgery was successful. Collins is attending a new school in Toledo.

If you are moved to help support this wonderful facility, a donation form is with the letter.

Keep praying Keep Pulling those TABS!

Thank you, Mary Ann P

UTO

Just a reminder that the in-gathering of UTO boxes will be the first 2 Sundays in November. New boxes can be found on the table by the entrance into the church proper.

PRAYER

My blessings are abundant; may I forever give God thanks and praise.

CHURCH HAPPENINGS

Thank you, Dear St. Tim's Members,

You've been Cliff's and my Ohio Family since 1968. Your love and prayers, care and support have been a blessing over the years and through multiple cancers and surgeries, especially during the past April, May and June, and again after Cliff's death. Your presence at his memorial service, the lovely hospitality before and after the service, your donations to St. Tim's in his name are all greatly appreciated.

I do not know of all who had a part in making everything come together so wonderfully, but I thank you, each and every one of you.

May God continue to bless St. Tim's, its members and ministries.

Gratefully and with love,

Mary Ann P

2018 Blessing of the Animals

The 3rd annual Animal Blessing was held on October 7th. The weather was perfect and the company both two legged and four enjoyed each other's company in the beautiful sunshine. Albert blessed our 4 dogs as well as a couple of dog pictures. Hotdog treats went home with our pups for good behavior. We look forward to next year's blessing, but until then we will all enjoy God's smaller creatures.

OUTREACH FOR NOVEMBER

This month, we continue collecting 15 oz cans of MANWICH ORIGINAL SLOPPY JOE MIX for Open M. Our goal is 210 cans to help fill Christmas food baskets. November 25 is the last day we can receive sloppy joe mix. At print time, we have 59 cans. Will you help us gather 151 more cans of Sloppy Joe sauce??

Thank you for your sharing.

What we do matters.

Nut Sale Reminder!

Nut pre-sale is now in progress. To insure you get the amount of nuts you want, please sign the Nut Sign Up Order Sheet. (Usually found on one of the tables before or after the Sunday services.) It indicates what kind of nuts (cashew or deluxe mixed) and whether you would like the saltiness to be light or regular. Regular- in that is the way it comes from the nut company.

The price per 1 # of nuts tentatively remains at $9.50 but could change by the time our order is received and delivered. We'll keep you informed as best as possible.

5. We will continue to reflect on amending our Mission Statement.
6. We heard a report on Newspaper advertising.
7. We need to do more research on our snow removal contract.
8. For next year, we will need to find new ways to take care of our grounds/landscaping.

DEACON'S REFLECTIONS

Each morning, my prayer includes Psalm 143:8 which in part says, "Show me the road that I must walk..." It reminds me that Jesus spent more time outside the Temple than inside it, and much of that time was spent walking to places near and far. Walking took him beyond Jewish lands, to a woman whose daughter had a demon; walking took him to a blind beggar, to 10 lepers exiled and to a mother and her dead son. Not the kind of people his disciples wanted him to hang out with.

Where are the roads that we, as a parish, are called to walk with Jesus? Maybe our journey takes us by a school where we decide to help kids needing tutors. Or we walk past one food pantry after another and decide to volunteer. Maybe we choose to take part in the roads the parish is already walking, like to Brentwood nursing home. Some years ago, the road took me to Reading Camp in Kentucky, following what for me was a clear sense of walking with Jesus. As a volunteer, I helped kids improve their reading and they helped me celebrate the beauty of their mountain, and catch salamanders. Strangers became friends; differences united toward a common goal. I still think about Will, Paige and the other kids.

To walk where Jesus walked, we need to journey to new places, beyond our doors, beyond our familiar haunts. Each road we walk with Jesus leads to new life.

Anne

RECIPE CORNER

Snickerdoodle Bars

Batter

1/2 cup unsalted butter, melted
1 large egg
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/3 cup light brown sugar, packed
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 cup all-purpose flour
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
1/4 teaspoon salt, optional and to taste

For Sprinkling

1/4 cup granulated sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon

Directions:

Batter – Preheat oven to 350F. Line an 8-by-8-inch baking pan with aluminum foil, spray with cooking spray; set aside.

In a large, microwave-safe bowl melt the butter, about 1 minute on high power.

Wait momentarily before adding the egg so you don't scramble it. Add the egg, sugars, vanilla, and whisk until smooth. Add the flour, cream of tartar, optional salt and stir until just combined, don't overmix. Turn batter out into prepared pan, smoothing the top lightly with a spatula; set aside.

For Sprinkling – In a bowl, combine the sugar, cinnamon, and stir.

Using a small spoon, evenly sprinkle cinnamon-sugar mixture over the prepared pan. Looks like a lot but it sinks down and soaks in while baking.

Bake for about 24 to 25 minutes, or until done. A toothpick inserted in the center should come out clean, or with a few moist crumbs, but no batter. Place pan on top of a wire rack to cool for at least 15 minutes before slicing and serving.

Bars will keep airtight at room temperature for up to 1 week
