THE TIDINGS

St. Timothy's Mission: To celebrate and share Christ's healing love through worship, fellowship, and outreach.

FEBRUARY, 2019

RECTOR'S RAMBLINGS

Years ago, I read an article in the Plain Dealer about a person receiving cancer treatment. She described other people going through similar treatments; they became a small, caring community. One of the men wore a hat embroidered with the words "Get to". He described how cancer has changed his attitude.

"There was a time that I would complain about having to pick up my grandson at school or doing an errand for a neighbor. Now, I realize that I get to pick up my grandson and do an errand for someone."

There is a lot in life that we get to do. May we be grateful.

UTO Prayer

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for the many and manifold blessings that You bestow upon us each new day. Thank You for holding us in the palm of Your loving hands. Even when things don't go our way, help us to be grateful for all of it.

In Jesus name.

Amen

The newest info from RMCD is the story of Katie and her family from Tennessee who were referred to Cleveland Clinic for possible facial transplant. Read their story of 26 surgeries, 3 years of therapy, and preparation for the 31 hour transplant surgery, and it's not over yet. See bulletin board for letter and donation envelope.

Her father Robb says, “It’s more than just a place to sleep and get food, it’s a place to lock arms with others.” Katie says she feels whole again.

On a personal note, I am relocating to Florida and family. Thanks for joining me in this outreach effort. Would you like to see this outreach continue at St. Tim’s? See Rev. Jennings.

Special Lenten Study

We are offering a follow-up course to “The Way of Love” we studied during Advent. It is called “Living the Way of Love”. We begin this new program on March 3 at 9:30 am. A book will be provided.

DEACON’S REFLECTIONS

There were four of us in the room, plus an instructor. My three “classmates” were retired and looking forward to this new venture at our local library. It’s called the Memory Lab and provides a way to digitize old movies, cassettes, VHS, records and slides. I’ve already scanned a bunch of slides from my dad; now, our small group was here to learn how to save cassette recordings to mp3. (The ancestors featured on my cassette would be amazed!)

Each of us had stories of what we wanted to preserve: an interview of dad done by a colleague years ago; a child’s dance recital not seen since the 1960’s; a conversation with a great aunt a few years before she died; home movies of mom’s family Christmas in 1945. Somehow, talking about these basic experiences made these three people feel special to me, like family, because their memory was as important as mine.

That training, and current events, have got me thinking about families, and seeing them as individual and as one, in the family of God. When you start to do that, you see all sorts of ways that we are connected. At the Homeless Stand Down last weekend, I talked with people who are struggling to afford basic needs, and it troubles me, as if they are my aunt or brother. Federal workers without a paycheck during the government shutdown are family, as much as when my real brother was laid off. Next time you’re in a group of people, try thinking of them as your family. And God’s family.

OUTREACH FOR FEBRUARY

This month we are collecting CANS OF SOUP. We are asking for the regular sizes— not jumbo family size. Your continued generosity is most appreciated by Open M and many families.

Outreach Committee

Thank you, St. Timothy’s, for sharing.

RECIPE CORNER

TERIYAKI CHICKEN CASSEROLE

INGREDIENTS

3/4 cup low-sodium soy sauce

1/2 cup water

1/4 cup brown sugar

1/2 teaspoon ground ginger

1/2 teaspoon minced garlic

2 Tablespoons cornstarch + 2 Tablespoons water

2 small boneless skinless chicken breasts

1 (12 oz.) bag stir-fry vegetables (Can be found in the produce section)

3 cups cooked brown or white rice

INSTRUCTIONS

Preheat oven to 350° F. Sprays a 9×13-inch baking pan with non-stick spray.

Combine soy sauce, 1/2 cup water, brown sugar, ginger and garlic in a small saucepan and cover. Bring to a boil over medium heat. Remove lid and cook for one minute once boiling.

Meanwhile, stir together the cornstarch and 2 tablespoons of water in a separate dish until smooth.

Once sauce is boiling, add mixture to the saucepan and stir to combine. Cook until the sauce starts to thicken then remove from heat.

Place the chicken breasts in the prepared pan. Pour one cup of the sauce over top of chicken. Place chicken in the oven and bake 35 minutes or until cooked through. Remove from oven and shred chicken in the dish using two forks.

*Meanwhile, steam or cook the vegetables according to package directions.

Add the cooked vegetables and rice to the casserole dish with the chicken. Add most of the remaining sauce, reserving a bit to drizzle over the top when serving. Gently toss everything together in the casserole dish until combined. Return to oven and cook 15 minutes. Remove from oven and let stand 5 minutes before serving. Drizzle each serving with remaining sauce. Enjoy.
